Rick,

To a bright and bunny person:

may you always go for the gusto and grab at opportunities that come your way. I wish you the best of luck in your endeavors. Thanks for being part of my class, Mrs. Laurano

Hi Rick

I've been nice knowing you, I've had a lot of fun experience listening to you. Been at lunch with you. Good luck in life

Candie

Rick –

Well, it looks like we finally did it! It's about time, huh?!?! I am really glad you once used to be in my Theatre class, but I am still mad at you for leaving me in there alone with "HER"!! Don't ever forget "ah Wilderness!" and "C'mon Rick, just kiss her!!"

Thank you for being my friend even on those occasions when I wasn't in a friendly mood!! Your a neat guy with a great sense of humor. Take care over the summer and whatever you do in life!

Love ya,

Cindy

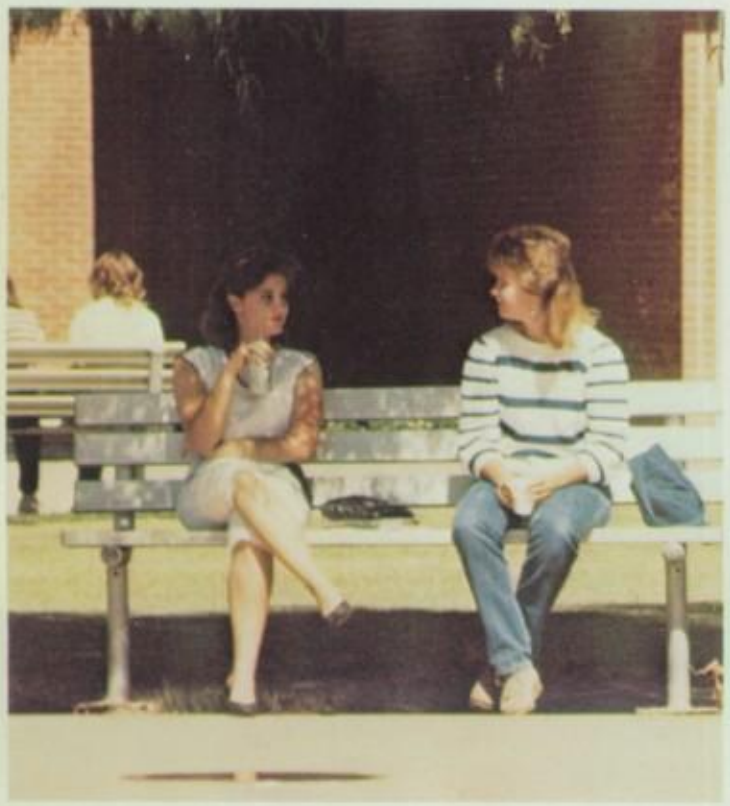
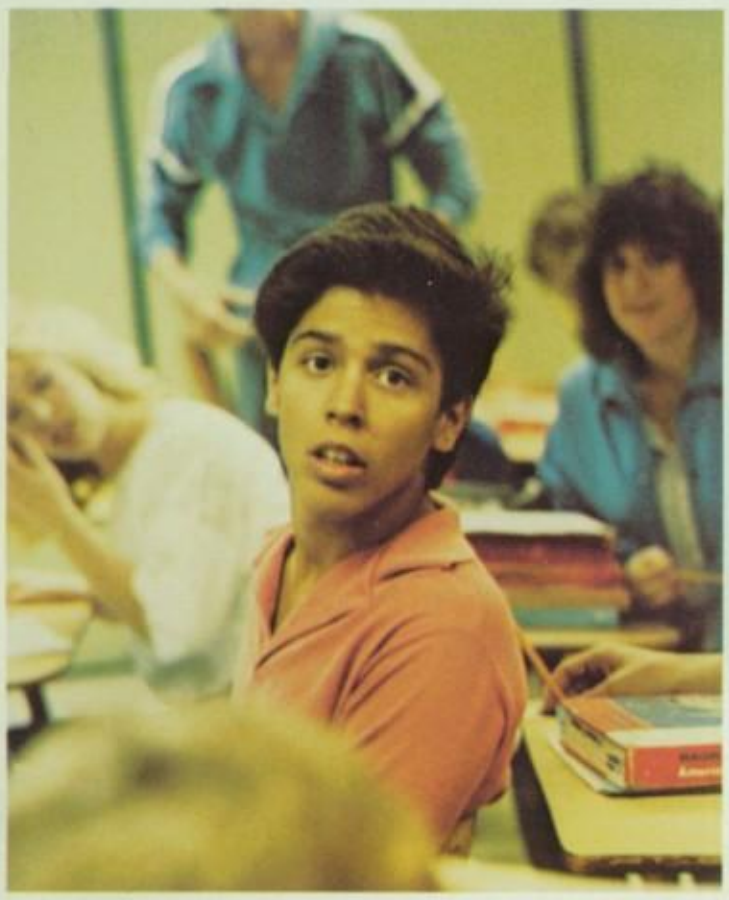
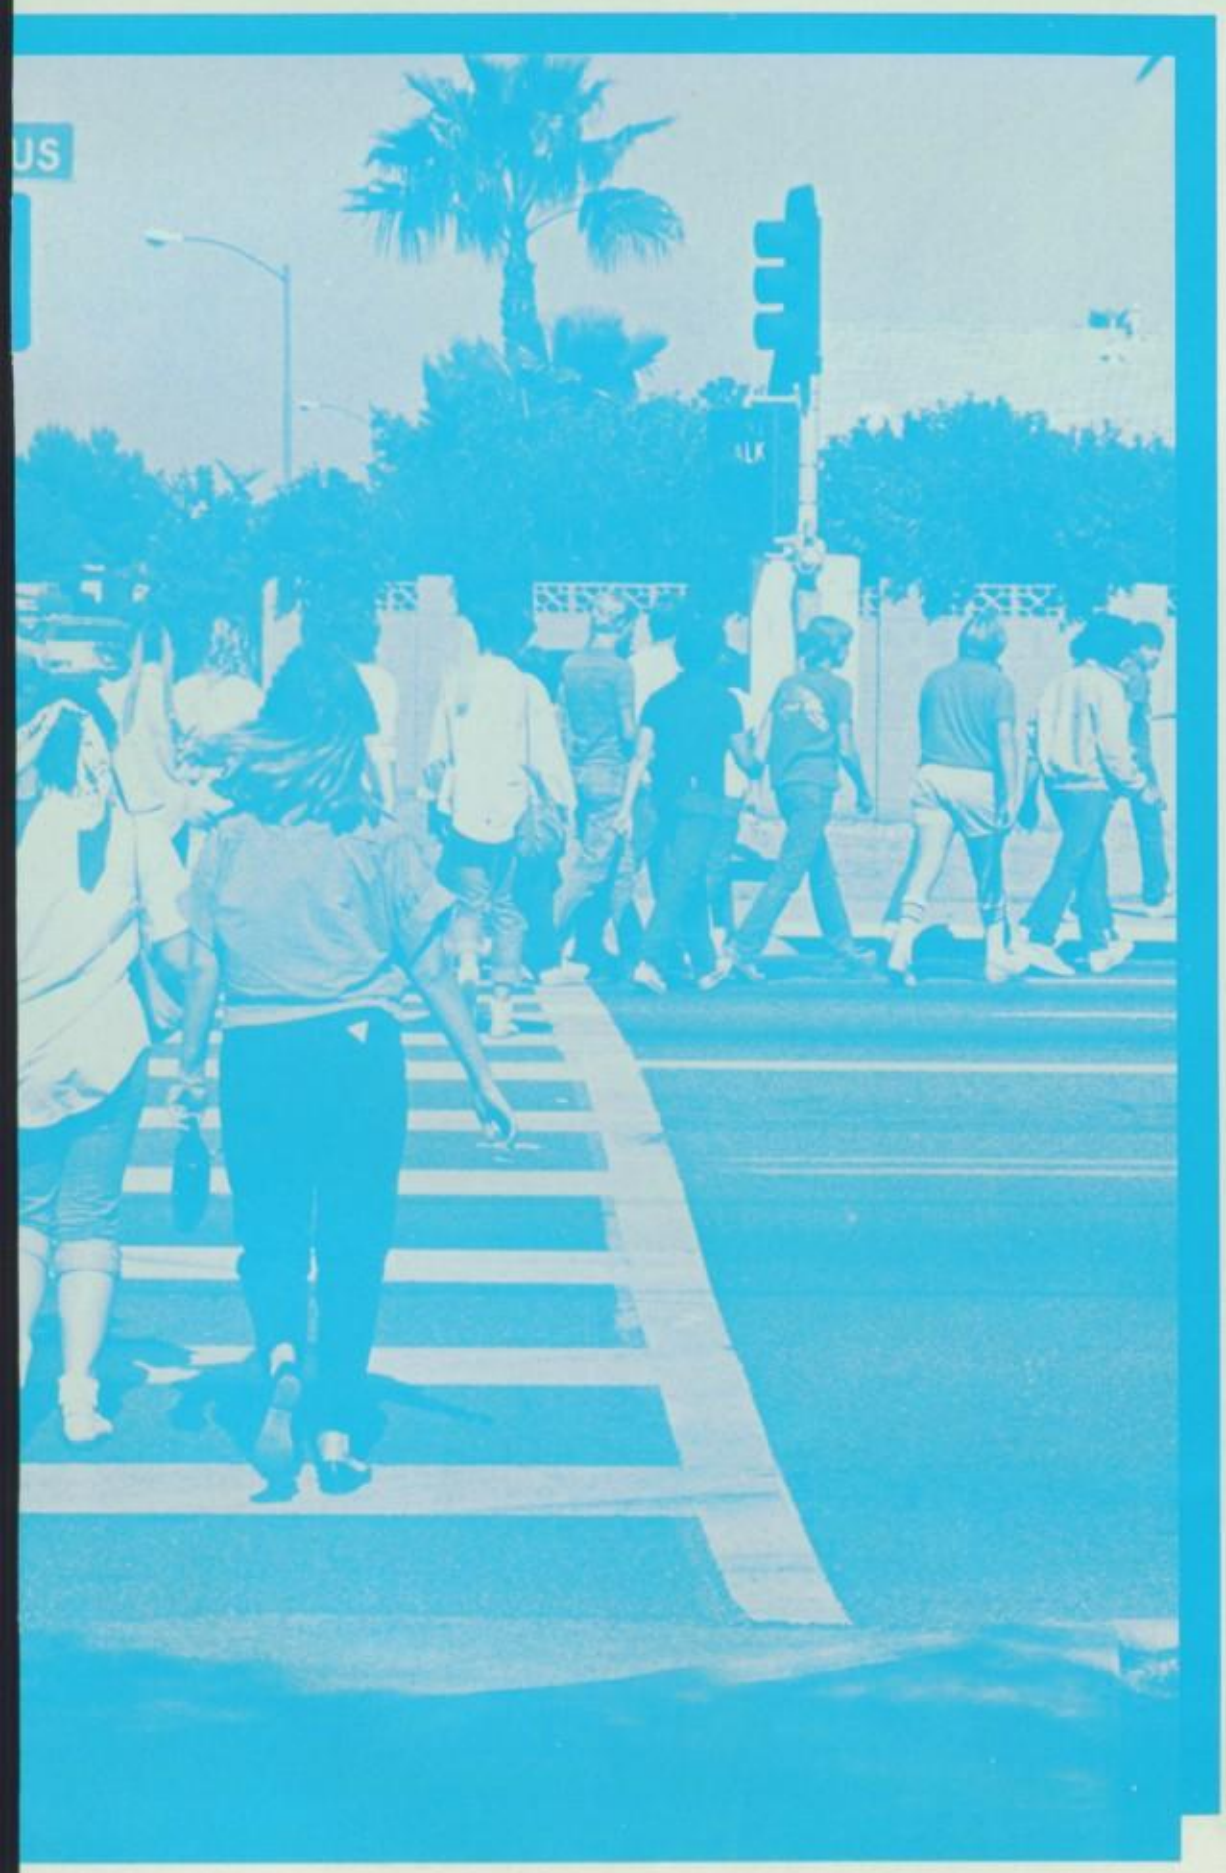
Mar-vel-ous (mar/vel/es) adj. 1. causing astonishment and/or wonder 2. miraculous; incredible. 3. (informal) very good; excellent; admirable. 4. Moon Valley High School. also Mar'/vel/lous; Mar'/vel/ous ly, adv; Mar'/vel/ous/ness, n. Moon Valley IS marvelous, in more ways than one way, Acedemically, athletically, and individually, the pride that we share as Rockets is outstanding. The only words we can find to describe Moon Valley are those of the immortal Fernando: "Moon Valley, you look Mahvelous" . . . Moon Valley You ARE Mahvelous!

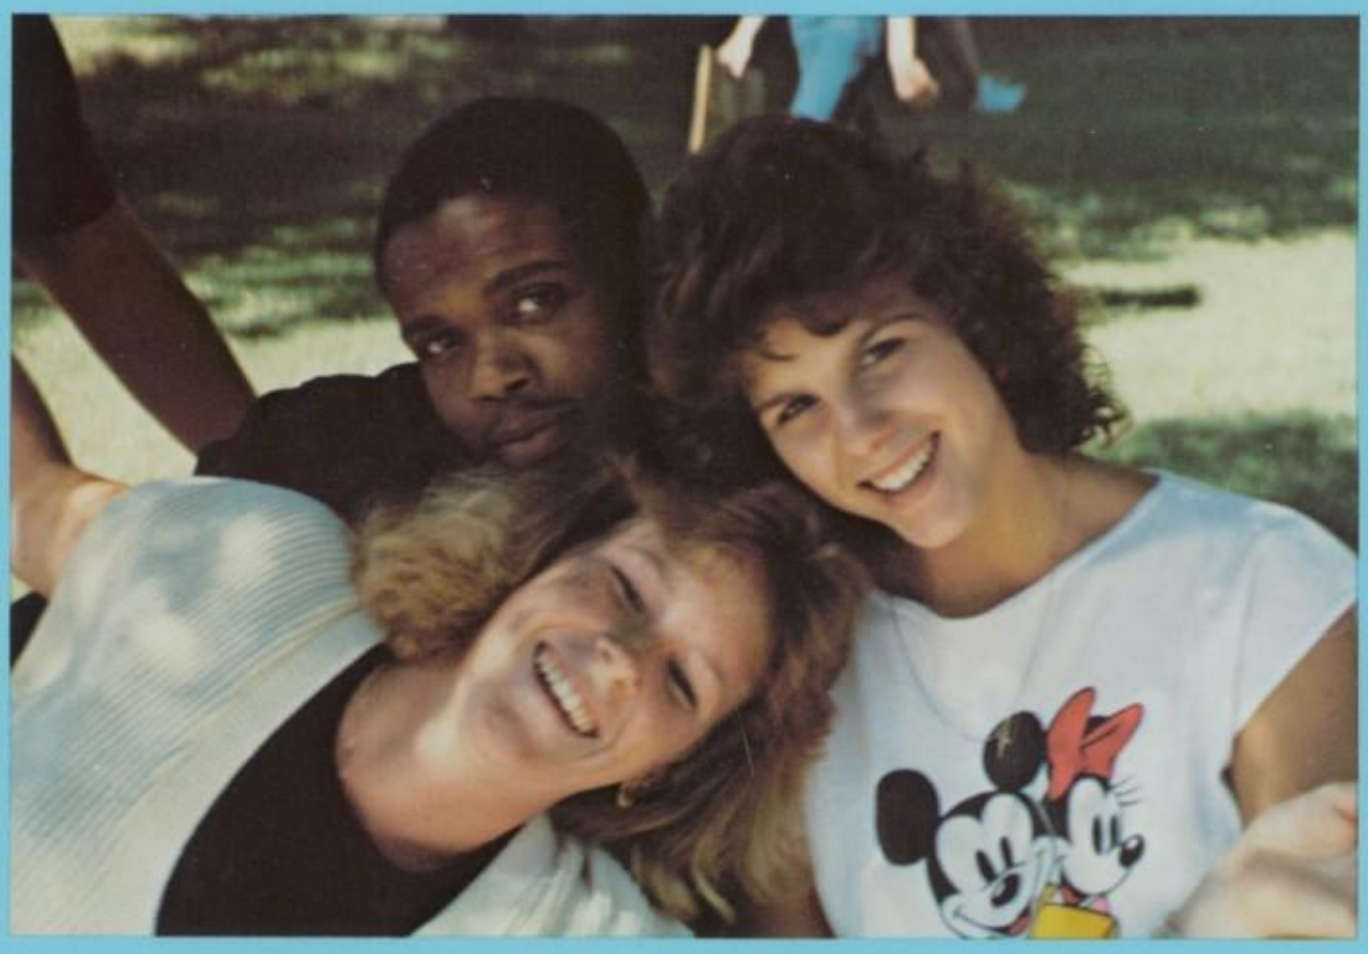




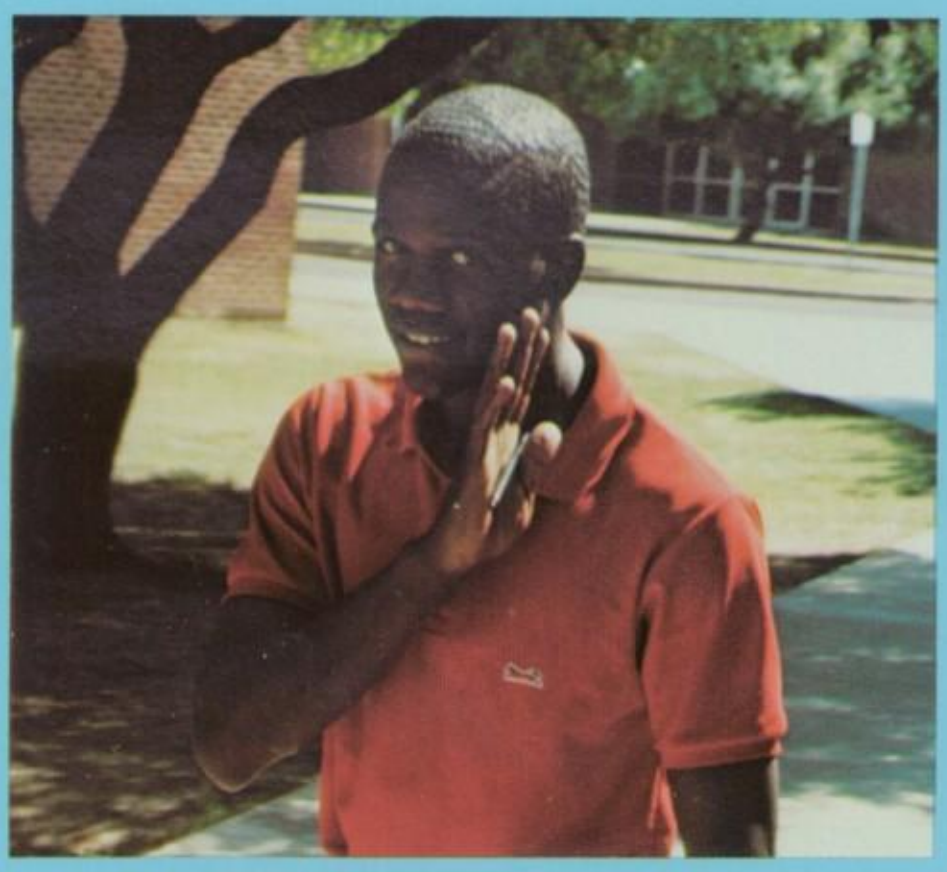


Friends Ease Tensions at School!!!

Tread lightly, you're in "Rocket Country"



Lending a shoulder is not an easy business as James Flack finds out when he lends his to Melissa Spero and Chris Kenny.



While most students want their picture in the book, Mike Calmase is not in the mood.

Friends gather for a quick game of Hackysac

Quiz: What is a Friend

1. Friends at M.V. A) help one another. B) Are friends even after 2:35 P.M. C) Are the lifeline of this school. D) All of the above.

2. Without friends you are: A) A lost cause B) An ingrown toenail C) A chip without dip. D) Destined to make one soon.

3. When you're with your friends you: A) Feel like a social grace. B) A timex that quit ticking. C) A failure notice. D) You are on a natural high.

4. Your friends treat you: A) Like a used Kleenex. B) Like a piece of gum stuck under a desk. C) Like a jet ball with no bounce. D) Like your own person; not the one they want you to be.

5. Your friends are: A) Merely a plate of spuds and weinies. B) A stick of generic gum. C) Dorothy without Toto. D) Just as important as any subject at school.

SCORING: If you answered D to all these questions, you must be a student at Moon Valley.

Sometimes friends need a little push as demonstrated by David Fierbend as he wheels John Hertneky to class after the Mesa/Moon Valley game.

uring lunch before returning to class.

No matter how long it takes, a dedicated friend will wait to give another a ride home.

FASHION

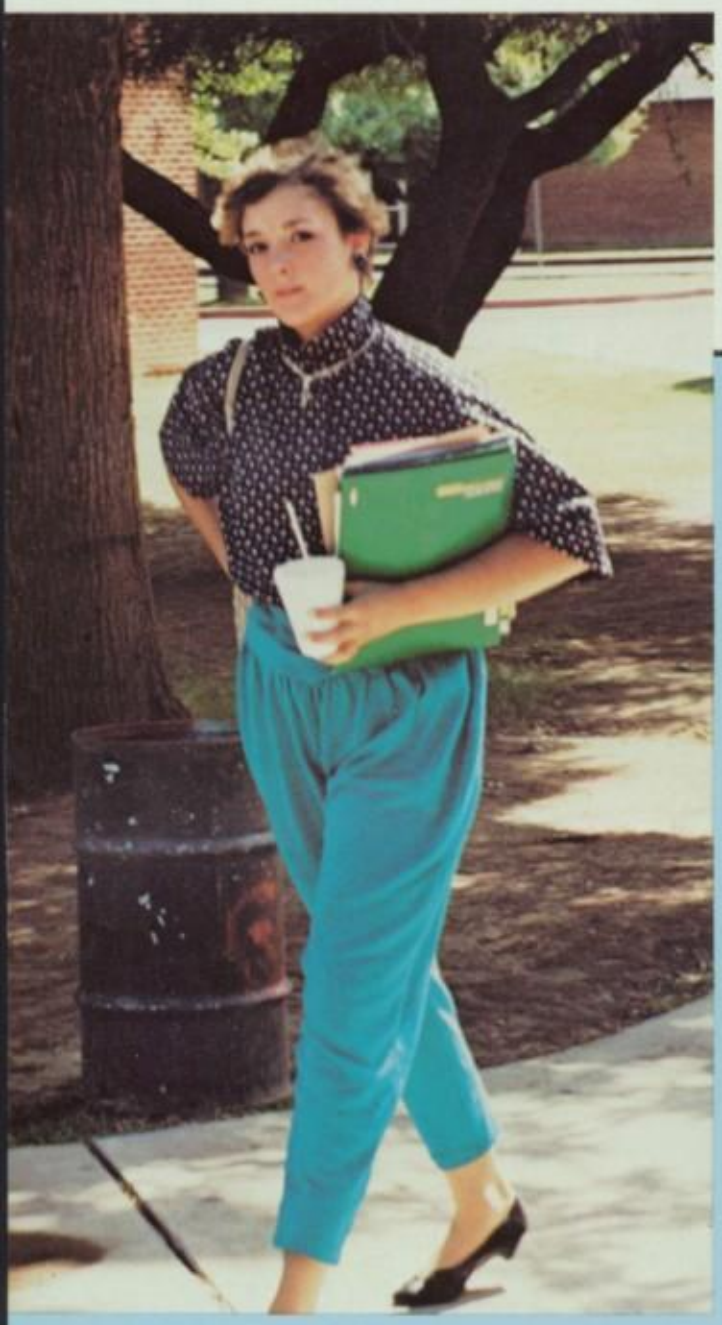
MAHVELOUS

There are many styles of dress this year. From casual to MODern. Greg Bradford, Gina Burdette, Mike Romero, Carrie Brown, and Michi Conde show off some of the newest trends.

Cari Dennin

With the new addition of the skate team at Moon Valley, many students decided that the skater apparel was for them: A skate shirt, Quicksilver shorts, and a pair of High Tops.

Very Intense . . . John Welch, Mike Hudson, and Pat Reed.



wearing the newest craze in pants.

Breaking is still a popular trend shown here by Jason Wamble and Jeff Davis.

No matter what new trends appear, there is always that special group of casual dressers, this year was no exception.

FOOTBALL FEVER

Every Friday at Moon Valley High School is a time for our spirit to shine. Everyone knows that later that night our school will challenge another team in a varsity football game. All throughout campus you see football jerseys or our school colors being worn by spirited students. Thanks to our Spiritline, Flagline and Band, our football games are something to be proud of. Our football players represent our school to triumph, not only in their actual field playing, but in their great sportsmanship. One thing shouldn't go unnoticed. All of us, in some way have been touched by . . . FOOTBALL FEVER.

Mrs. Jennifer Johnson
Assistant Dean

On behalf of the faculty and administration, I would like to acknowledge your contributions to Moon Valley High School during the 1985-86 school year. Your academic and co-curricular accomplishments have added to Moon Valley's rich tradition of excellence.

To the Class of 1986, we offer best wishes for successful and enjoyable post-secondary experiences. As alumni of Moon Valley High School, you can reflect with fond memories on the years you spent with us. May the best of your past be the worst of your future. Good luck!

As members of the classes of 1987, 1988, and 1989, you still have numerous opportunities to make additional contributions to Moon Valley. Take advantage of these opportunities. Your involvement will enrich your high school experiences.

To all members of the Moon Valley family, I extend my sincere appreciation for making the 1985-86 school year so successful.

Sincerely,
Dr. David A. Santellanes

ORGANIZATIONS

National Honor Society is an honorary club whose membership is restricted to those students who demonstrate continued excellence in the areas of scholarship, leadership, service, and character. NHS brings together students from all areas of the student body, who have given both curricularly and extracurricularly to the school. During the year NHS serves the school and students by working at school functions and tutoring willing students.

D.E.C.A. is a program which gives students an opportunity to be involved in the business world while planning for a successful future. The students have participated in a Fall, Western Regional, and State DECA Conference. They have also been involved in a program entitled Toastmasters. This program improves the students' speaking skills which will help them in the future. The students have been involved in many community and social activities as well. A few of these are raising food and money for St. Mary's food bank and a needy family over Thanksgiving and Christmas. Students donate time to the Tumbleweed PTA to help build a haunted house. Students are selected for the class on the basis of their occupational career goals.

HERO

H.E.R.O. — Home Economics Related Occupations is for seniors with vocational interests in food service, child care, special education, medicine, dentistry, clothing, and fashion.

H.E.R.O. students get job experience while in class and on the job. Students learn many job related skills, such as employer/employee relationships, communication, professional dress, behavior, and much much more. H.E.R.O. students are active in the community as well as in class and on the job.

Governor Babbitt has selected Pam Ferguson as the only teacher representative to serve on a vocational committee for the state of Arizona. Congratulations Pam!

Below: Lisa Baker wears a rabbit on her lapel to ward off any misfortune which came to be known as "Aunt Bunny" in the theatre this year.

No, this is not a scene from "La Cage Aux Folles." A reluctant advanced theatre was cajoled into doing oral reports on musicals in anticipation for the spring musical "Damn Yankees." The unexpected teacher told the class to be creative. The results were, well, interesting. Greg Wolf and Pat Reed took some womens clothes, combat boots, a musical written some twenty years ago, and some classic music, stirred vigorously, and poured out their oral report on the Rock opera "Tommy" in the form of two old ladies reviewing it on Masterpiece Theater. But don't change that dial yet, next week they're doing The Rocky Horror Picture Show. Just for kicks.

Boys and Girls State educates students in the operation of city and procedures of law. Students are selected by character, leadership, attitude, and involvement in school, church, and community service. At Boys and Girls State, cities are established, officials are elected, and laws are made and enforced. Classes on law and educational assemblies are also attended, ranging from careers to party unity.

The Messenger

The Messenger is published monthly by the Advanced Journalism class at Moon Valley. Typical stories included coverage of the jaywalking problems, student views on Libya and the communication between the district, faculty and students. Student views on record ratings, stress and "cart teachers" were expressed in columns. The paper was also responsible for feature articles, news series, sports coverage, and editorial commentary.

Jill Green was the faculty sponsor who directed the learning experience of the student journalists.

MESSENGER EDITORIAL STAFF:

The Sidekicks is one of the new clubs this year at Moon Valley. Our main purpose is to support our soccer team. We have money to support the team by having car washes, selling pennants, and selling concessions at the games. We have been very successful so far this year and we hope to be around for many more years to come.

STREAKERS AND SKINNYDIPPERS

The Streakers are the support group for the Cross Country teams. Through a successful dance and sale, money is raised to provide uniforms, awards, and social activities for the teams and the club members.

Skinnydippers is a support group for the Swim/Dive team. We help score and time at home swin meets. We also have a bagel sale to raise funds for the awards banquet at the end of the season.

Hoopsters have enjoyed a very busy season. We have had several successful fundraisers, including our Santa Surprise sale and a Spirit Clothes sale. Other events sponsored by Hoopsters this year include the Spirit Dance in January and the half-time shooting contests at home basketball games. We work hard all season to promote school spirit, to increase game attendance and to raise money to send our players to summer basketball camp.

PIN-PALS

Pin-pals is the organization dedicated to supporting the wrestling team. The girls score, run the time clock and scoreboard, and work the concession at all the home matches to cheer on and support the team. Fund raising is carried on to supplement needs of the wrestling teams not covered through regular funding. Social activities such as banquets, picnics, and an annual Christmas party are enjoyed by both the girls and the wrestlers.

N.J.R.O.T.C.

The N.J.R.O.T.C. program offers an opportunity for high school students to learn the basic elements and requirements for national security. The goals of the program are to develop informed and responsible citizens, strengthen the individuals character, help form habits of self-discipline, develop respect for an understanding of the need for consituted authority in a democratic society, and develop an interest in the military service as a possible career. The club is composed of those students enrolled in Naval Science. The club sponsors an annual military ball, an awards banquet, and a farewell party honoring graduating seniors. The club also sponsors field trips to naval training facilities and ship board cruises. This year the club will also host a Disneyland trip, a golf tournament, a parent/cadet rifle match, and numerous hayrides.

VOCAL MUSIC

Besides the obvious growth in musical skills as an individual, choir membership helps students develop in poise, self-confidence, leadership, and responsibility. Students are given opportunities to perform solos and in small groups as well as in the choir.

MVHS Choirs are having a busy year of activities. There were three major concerts at the school. In addition we sang for such things as civic clubs, business banquets, retirement centers, State Department of education, open house (MVHS) Eighth grade Parent night, State Capitals Christmas series, and various music festivals. We also hosted an exchange with Cholla Jr. High.

Health Occupations Education is in its 10th year. This program gives high school students a glimpse at medical professions before they begin college. Health Occupations Education is designed to introduce students to allied Health Professions and to erase myths about health care by allowing the students to get an inside view. Students get the inside view by working 8 hours per week at the V.A. Medical Center as a Jr. Volunteer and spending 2 hours per week in a related class. Students must apply and be accepted into HOC. Students must be willing to leave school and travel every day.

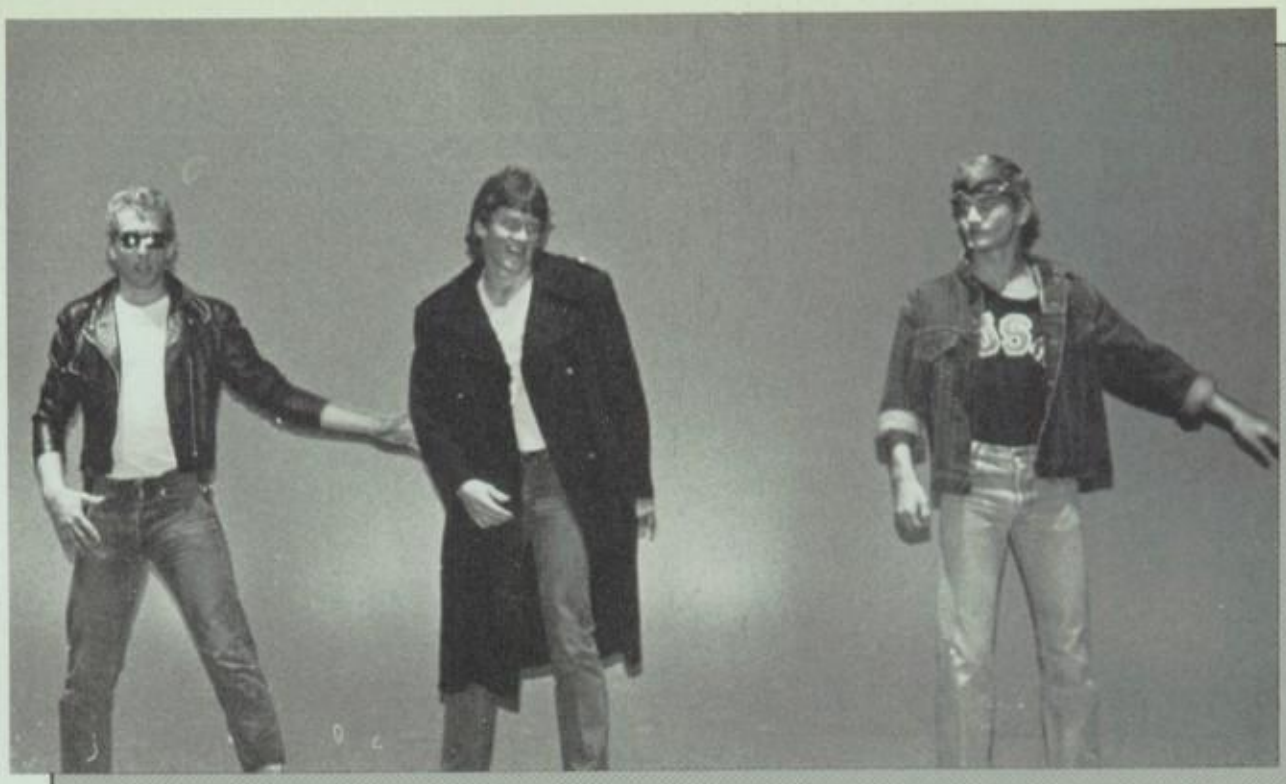
HOMECOMING



In the spotlight . . .

To get away from the pressures of school, students often turn to evening entertainment. One of the highlights in evenings of entertainment sponsored by the school this year was the annual homecoming talent show, sponsored by the M.V. student council. The success of the talent show was prompted by the large turnout to auditions. Acts accepted included the C.H.U.D.S., pictured above and below; the rock bands Saber, pictured to the side, and Alliance; and the Faculty Follies, put on by a few of the more, well . . . , courageous members of the M.V. staff. All in all, student council put together one MARVELOUS show.

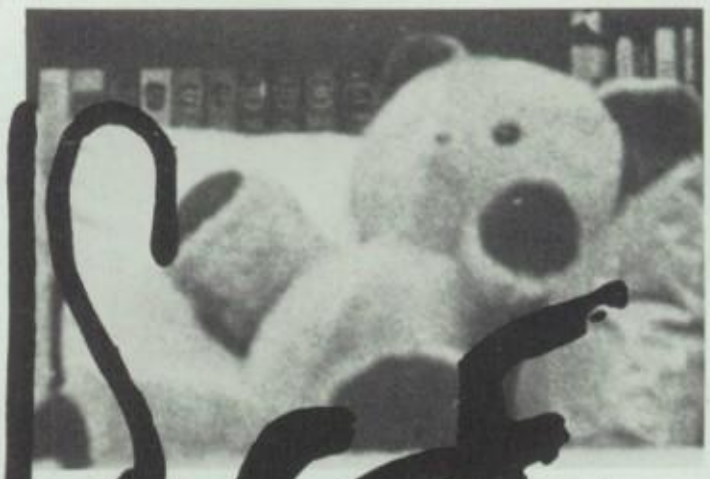
THE CURIOUS SAVAGE



Jill Anderson sprays her hair silver and blue in preparation for her role as Ethel P. Savage.

The courage to live one's live is an earned commodity that comes through sometimes painful experience. High school is a time to begin to earn that precious commodity. In that light, this year's spring production "The Curious Savage" is especially appropriate for High School because it deals with the earning and exercising of the right to live one's own life, free of the restrictions placed on individuals by society. Mrs. Savage's greedy children want to get the 10 million dollars her husband left her upon his death. Mrs. Savage, however, has quite different plans for her money. She plans to set up a memorial fund to help the less fortunate. Her "crazy" idea gets her admitted to an insane asylum by her children who could not see past their loss as individuals to their gain as members of society. Mrs. Savage realizes that the only way for her to find peace within herself is for her to have the courage to realize her dreams, no matter how foolish those dreams seem to society. Because of people like Mrs. Savage — those not-so-great people with great ideas, those who refuse to relinquish their right to put their ideas in motion because someone says "It's a bit too radical," we have leaders. Because of those people we have dreams. Because of those people, we have love.

Joe Boyd was blue;
He was sad;
His favorite team, the Senators,
Played very very bad.

Joe would sell his soul for the team,
The devil said, "Sure."
Now Joe was a great baseball player,
But he was no longer pure.

He wanted to get out
And go back to his spouse
But the devil hired Lola to tempt him.
What a louse!

The devil was certain he'd get him
But Joe wasn't so sure.
After all, he had a escape clause,
But Lola was quite a lure.

Who will get Joe's soul?
The devil or Joe?
Well, didn't you see the play?
Then, you'd already know!!

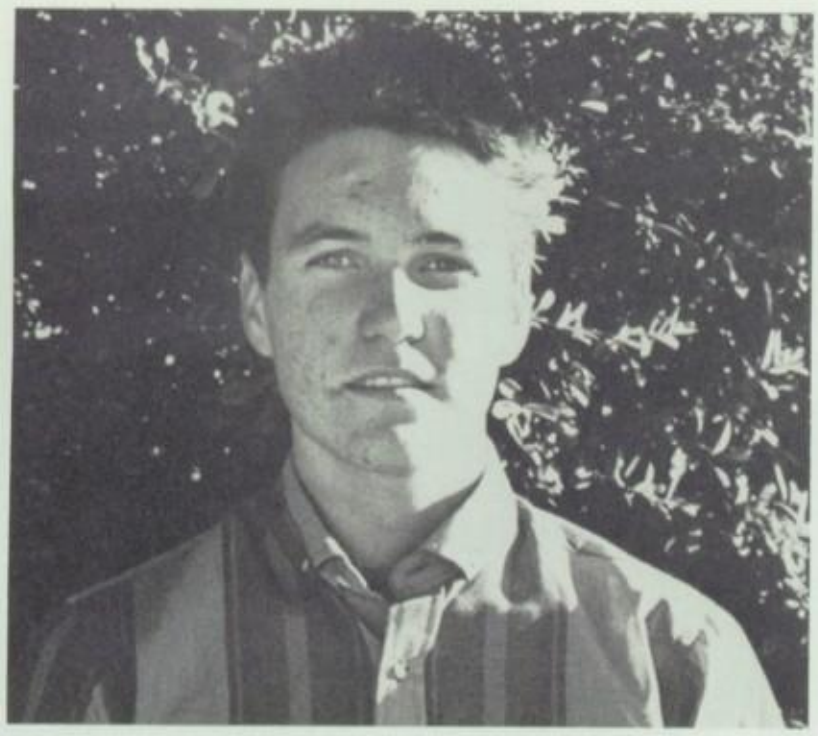
FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS: PAULO HENRIQUE RUBINI FERREIRA

My name is Paulo Henrique Rubini Ferreir. I'm an Exchange Student from Brazil. The customs in Brazil are different like; when we meet new people we give a hug or a kiss, here you shake hands or just say "hi". The school in Brazil is also very different, I can't select my subjects, I need to take all the subjects; more or less 23 teachers and 16 subjects. School starts at 7:00 am and lets out at 12:30 pm. Some classes I have Monday, Wednesday, Friday and others I have on Tuesday, and Thursday and sometimes on Saturday, and some afternoons, but only a couple of hours. So far I enjoy it very much in Arizona, my state is very hot too but it isn't like here.

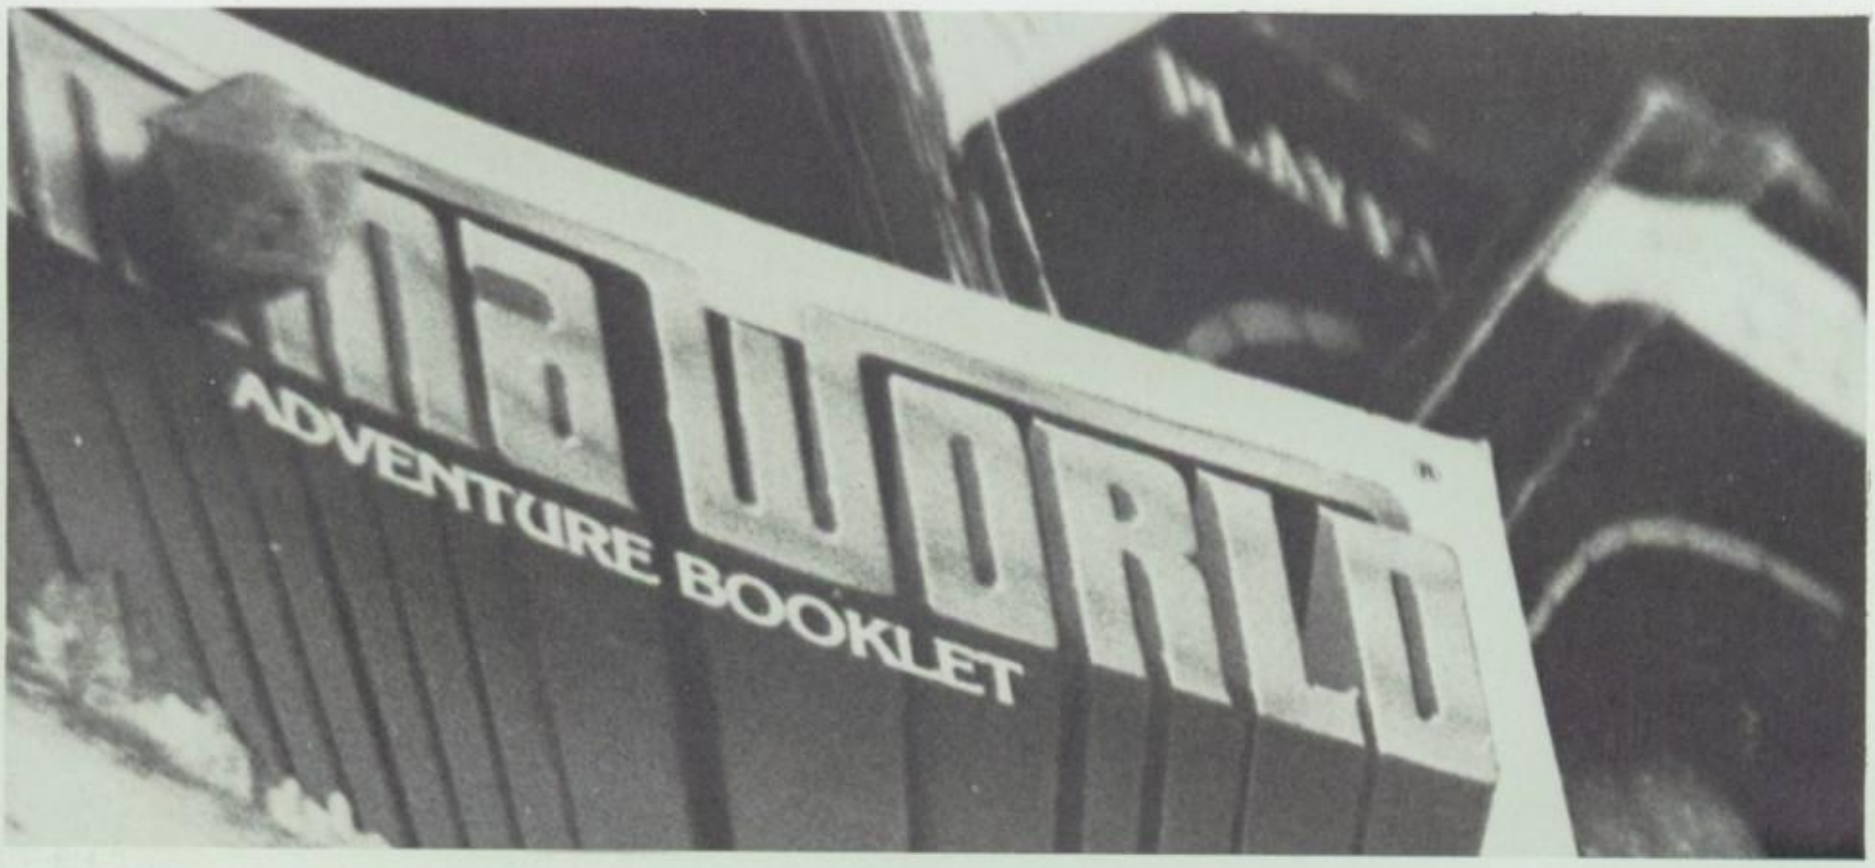
FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS: CLAUDIA KOEHNKEN

My name is Claudia Koehnken and I'm a foreign exchange student from Germany. I came to the United States on August 21, 1985. I'm staying with the Biology teacher Mrs. Wells. The problems with the new language began on the airplane, when I tried to start a conversation with my neighbor. I couldn't understand one word because of the slang. I had six years of English, it seemed like it wouldn't help me at all and I thought taking the next airplane back to Germany. Everything worked out after all and I could understand every day, a little more and everybody tried to help me. In Germany I live in Kieh, that is next to Denmark on the East Sea. It's really cold over there. An example would be the summer in Germany would be like the winter in Arizona. The people in my age there are some differences in Germany. There is almost no drinking age in Germany and you can stay at night clubs until 12:00 am and longer if you are 18 or older. A night club in Germany is a place where everybody can go, from 14 & 15 years and up. You meet a lot of people with different characters, different ages and other different things, and you are not separated from different people. You really learn from each other and you have so much fun you don't believe it. One thing I like more in the States than in Germany is that you can get your Driver's License when you are 16 not 18 like in Germany, you also have to take a special class and pay money to learn about the traffic and signs. During this year I had a lot of strange feelings and sometimes I think I don't know what's going on sometimes I feel just furious because I think everybody laughs at me, even if they laugh about something else. In the first time it was really hard to find friends because I couldn't speak English that well and nobody to take the time to explain if I couldn't but now after 5 months I've made some close friends that help and understand me. I really got a part of the American way of life and I really want to say thank you to everybody who helped me in the very first hard time and shared problems with me. If you ever have the chance to see a foreign exchange student just do it, it might be the best experience in your whole life.



FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS: AUNDERS RAMBURG

My name is Aunders Ramberg. I'm an exchange student from Sweden. Many things are very much alike in my country and the US but some things are different. People in the U.S. are more dependent on religion than in Sweden. Foods are also different in that way "we" usually don't eat as much "junk" food as the Americans. I've enjoyed my stay in Arizona. It's amazing that such a big city can be so nice and clean. I've also enjoyed Moon Valley and the school program they are offering.



Destination: Imagination. Have you ever dreamed of fighting against a ferocious dragon? Or of casting a sleep spell on a knight just as he swings his battleaxe? Or arming a car for a futureistic battle against Mad Max? Or being cloaked in invisibility? Or being a professional assassin and chasing down your quarry? The members of Strategy and Tactic have, and they have lived their dreams, through the games they play. They play role-playing games and to play all you need are assorted dice, Some manuals and imagination. With imagination, you can become anthing. What would you like to be?!

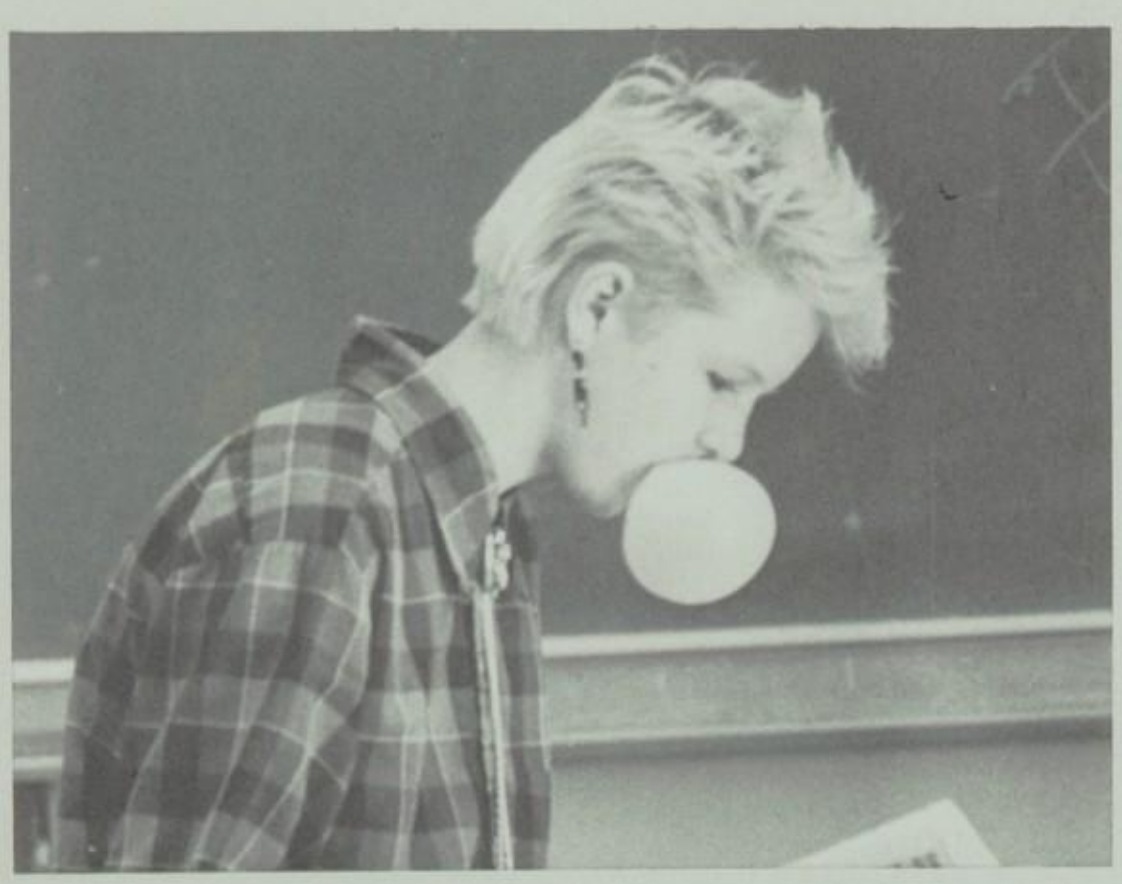
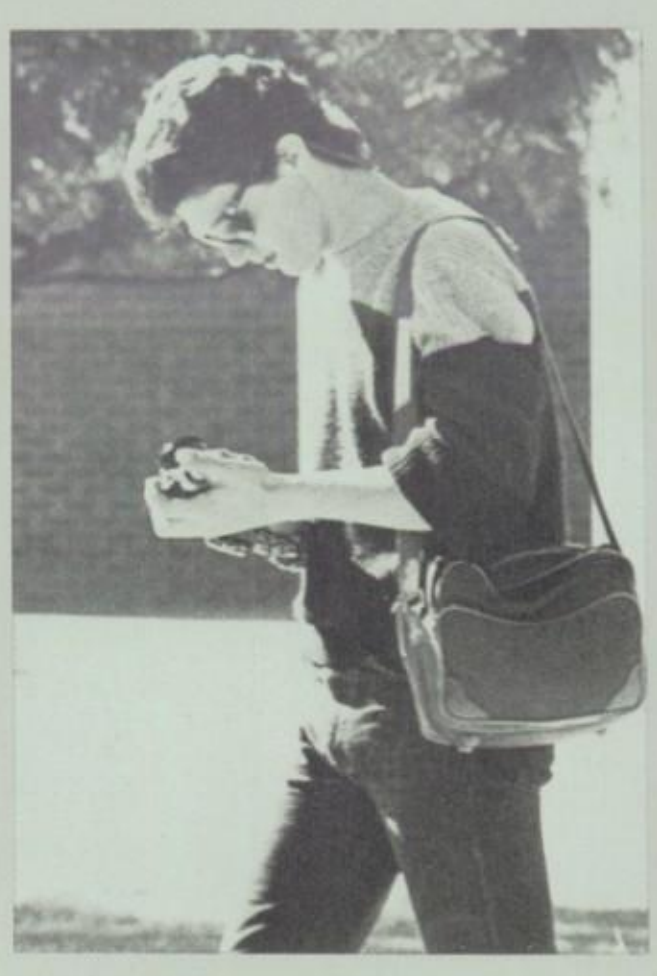
Countdown to Commitment





In the beginning there were Mr. Kwiatkowski and Mrs. Davis. On the first day they assembled the yearbook staff. On the second day, they instructed the staff on the technical terms of the yearbook. On the third day, they journeyed to the Scottsdale Sheraton for a yearbook conference, and to the Lunt Ave. Marble Club for lunch. In the 4th, 5th, and 6th days the staff studied their yearbook handouts and guidlines. On the seventh day Mr. Kwiatkowski and Mrs. Davis beheld the staff busily discussing the theme of the yearbook, called them good and rested.

On the eighth day they screamed and ran.

The countdown staff, along with the deciding of the theme, had decided to revoke the ordinary and strive to be unique, to meet all deadlines without any problems and to be organized . . . "One out of three isn't too bad, is it?" Unique we made without a problem. The bizzareness started on the third day in which the staff pillaged Lunt Avenue and filched marbles out of the walls between courses in the meals, and reached its peak when the crazed editor attempted to remove the ear of the countdown mascot screaming "DEADLINE!" when the page he'd assigned to the mascot was late. Other unusual staffers included a RUSHing photographer, Kevin W. who, animal crackers in hand, skiied to photo shoots, and his cohort Kevin W. Who, much to his horror, was stuck here by a schedule change and spent most of his time hiding beneath rough drafts of soon to be layouts. The two sports editors were precluded from doing any locker room interviews, as they were both female. They did, however, manage to get the scoop on every sport through coersive means which we won't go into here, as we never quite discovered them and praise be for that. Add to these a manic depressive, a hyperactive recluse a senior photographer whose moods could swing better than any given trapeeze artist in the Ringling Brother's circus, two sophomores who could be though of as Chip and Dale or maybe even Peanut-Butter and Jelly, an assistant editor whose work ethic proved hazzardous to the R&R and 6th hour homework of the rest of the staff, two COE girls who typed rather unreadable senior shorts by candlelight until the wee hours of the morning, causing severe cramping in their fingers and severe shock among the staff and of course there was Nikki, well, who speaks for herself, which is disadvantagous, since she is the only one who comprehends the fashion of the day anyhow.

Now maybe you understand why Mrs. Davis wears mirrored sunglasses to shield the crazed look in her eyes from the public, and why Mr. Kwiatkowski hides under his desk as the first sign of a staffer appears meanacingly on the horizon.

In the end there will be the yearbbook, and on the eighth day the staff will be committed.

FOOTBALL: MAHVELOUS!

Moon Valley football was not just another team this year, it was a team with determination, integrity, and willpower. For a team supposedly in the rebuilding year Moon Valley proved to be a major success. For the second smallest team in the history of Moon Valley their speed and quickness helped them to the playoffs. Moon Valleys Football team is something to be proud of.

Swimming Creates Waves.

Creating waves. That's what our swim team did this year. In the boys' divisionals this year, Chris Kibsey placed 1st in the 200 and 500 free. At the state meet he placed 5th and 6th in the same events. Not only did Chris have a good year, but Rob Hollinger placed 11th in the 50 and 100 free during State. In the girls' divisionals they placed 4th out of 13 teams. In State, our 4x100 relay took 14th place. Shannon Lane took 9th in backstroke and 11th in the 200 free. Our swim team did, no doubt . . . CREATE WAVES.

Running For the Record

The Moon Valley Cross Country Teams continued to prove themselves one of the top programs in the state. The Varsity Boys Team capped off their most successful dual meet season of 16 wins and one loss by winning the Skyline Region Division I Championship, Moon Valley's first. Senior Eric Grubbs was also Moon Valley's first individual boy champion. Senior co-captain Carlos Telles (4th), Junior Tim Bennett (6th), Freshman Doug Fox (10th), Sophomore Mark Decker (17th), and Sophomore Jeff Szymura (26th) secured the victory. Carlos Telles went on to place 13th in the AAA State meet.

The Junior Varsity Boys Team compiled a season record of 12 wins and two losses and went on to win the Glendale Union High School District championship for the fourth time in the past six years. The Freshman Boys Team compiled a record of 11 wins and three losses. They finished fourth in the District Championships.

Setting the Record

This year's varsity volleyball team sure did set the record. Marvelous sums it up pretty well. It was probably the best volleyball team Moon Valley has ever had. Their record of 14 wins, 4 losses is the best record in MV's history. Tina Berg and Yvonne Gastelo were named to the 1st Team All Division Team, and were both selected as The Most Valuable Players on the team. Tina Berg was also named to the All Tournament Team at Divisionals. Honorable mention honors went to Eileen Andrews and Linda Druyor. Shannon Krebbs was selected as the team's Most Improved player. Players such as Shannon, along with Dawn Schultz, Robbie Rundall, Suzy Terhorst, and Tina will make next year's team as strong as ever. As you can see, this year was marvelous in every way possible. Next year, we'll expectantly wait for our team to shine through once more, as it promises to. But for now we just have one more thing to tell you, volleyball team, YOU ARE MARVELOUS.

VARSITY JV BADMINTON: MAHVELOUS

Badminton this year was an over-all success. Seniors Erica Klien and Vivian Holm led the team by winning doubles in the divisionals held at Moon Valley and by going on to take second place at State. Senior Sheri Raver was a great contribution to the team, winning her first two rounds in divisionals. Michelle McKenna, Kathryn Pollack, and Heather Reutter all participated in divisionals, losing in the first round. All in all, badminton was MAHVELOUS!!

Erica Klien and Vivian Holm play in the Skyline Division Championship. They beat their opponent to clinch first place.

CELERY ALERT!

If you ever thought the value of celery was merely nutritional, think again. It could save your life . . . Okay, so it is a LITTLE far-fetched, but, according to Doctor Who, a British television series, celery turns purple when exposed to toxic levels of radiation. Both Nyssa of Traken (Laura Sichrovsky here) and the Doctor wear celery to ensure a correct radiation reading. If both sticks of celery turn the dreaded purple, then the radiation level is too high for life forms such as theirs. If only one turns purple, then Nyssa has to flip a coin to decide which reading is correct. Hopefully, Laura has a quarter . . .

Michael P. Trunzo — ROTC, key club, Student government, nights of the lunch table: To the class of 86. They say that the best years of our lives have now ended. This brings up the question, "What's next?" Somehow I find it hard to believe that when that diploma I've worked for is placed in my hand, and I leave campus for the last time, all the real fun is over. It's a hard world but it is also a world shaped by man for man. Six hundred of the most fun loving people I know are about to be unleashed onto this world, I don't think the world is ready. So go now with this thought, nationwide the class of 86 totals thousands if not millions. We, as members can either let the world take the fun out of our lives, or make the world a fun place to live.
Mike Tucci — Tucci. Thanks mom & Dad — Toyota. . . . Skiing with M.R. . . . The round up . . . All the partye . . . summer at the lake water skiing, cursin with sterio, LYK. 86 best years with MR, AC, JM, TM, K2.

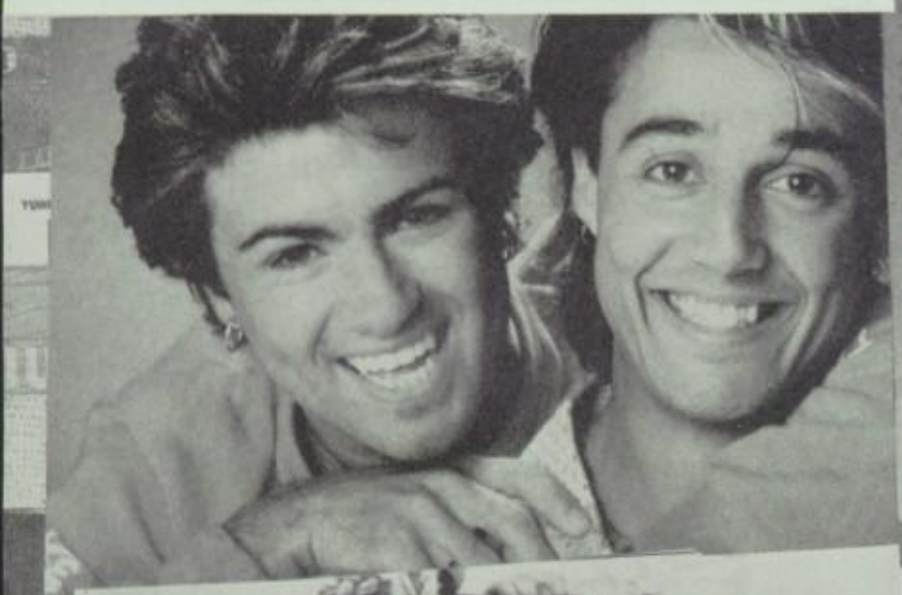
Mahvelous!!



1985-86
A Year of Triumphs & Tragedies

In 1985 the Kansas City Royals won the World Series and at the same time the war in the middle-east continued. The United States was advancing in the space program and an entire city block was destroyed in Philadelphia. While Pete Rose broke Ty Cobb's hitting record a series of earthquakes plagued Mexico City. While people partied in Arizona people starved in Africa. We see all the problems in the world and say "well there is nothing I can do" but there is, you can prepare for your future. It is time to pull your head out of the sand and get involved. When something in your life changes for the worst you try hard to change it; so why not try to change the things that will affect your life in the years to come. 1985-86 is not just a time of good and bad; but, a time to realize that we are the ones who will be the prisoners of some terrorists hijacking if we don't put a stop to it. We don't have to stop having a good time just stop avoiding the bad. We have got to stop doing for ourselves and start helping one another. When we can do this our world will be a MAHVELOUS place to live for everybody.

Below: Bruce Springsteen's songs about Vietnam Veterans, steelworkers, and factory workers hit many Chords with all ages of Americans. Center: Royals pitcher Bret Saberhagen embraces third baseman George Brett after pitching a five-hitter to give the Royals the World Series Crown over the Saint Louis Cardinals. Above Center: A distraught Mouslem hugs his son moments after they survived a car bomb explosion outside West Beirut. Center Right: Christa McAuliffe packs for her trip to Houston where began her training for her flight into space. She was to become the first female high school teacher in space. Above Right: Ceremonies were held at various times during the year at the Vietnam Memorial in Washington to commemorate the tenth anniversary of the fall of the Saigon government in Vietnam. Bottom Right: The Countdown Staff would like to honor the seven heros of the tragic Space Shuttle Challenger mission which occured 11:39:12 A.M. Jan. 28th 1986. Francis "Dick" Scobee; Michael J. Smith; Ronald McNair; Maj. Ellison Onizuka; Judity Resnik; Gregory Jarvis; and Christa McAuliffe they gave their life for advancement of exploration.

The last deadline is to be sent today and it is now time to write the closing. There are several people who have made this year the best and they all deserve thanks. All the teachers, staff, & coaches that have met shooting schedules, returned photos, copy and information. You have helped to make this book what it is. Photo 3-4 for your spring sport candids. Mrs. Davis, without you I could not have kept my head above water and I thank you for being a great advisor not just for yearbook but for all my problems. Dawn and Cathy thanks for the help and Leigh & Heather thanks for getting on my case when I needed it. Ben thanks for lunch (not to mention the $$$) and to the rest of the staff thanks for putting up with me. Remember we did it together. Miss Kerwin I appreciate the talks we had; they helped me to understand what was heppening and I owe you a lot. I hope we can help each other in years to come. Dad, Helen, Mom, and Dave without your help, love, support, tolerance, and understanding I would have failed. Holly you deserve thanks for always being there when I really needed you (even if you didn't know it). I don't know what is in store for us but as long as we're friends forever I will be happy. I hope that I have left something with all of the above mentioned and with all those who I have met during my high school years. I would like to be remembered as I go through life not as "the guy who sat behind me" but as someone who people could count on as a friend or just to help out. The last few years in yearbook and here at M.V. I have learned a lot and I will never forget what has happened, but I will always carry a little piece of each and every person who has helped me achieve what I have. Once again I thank you.

This year sure did fly by! To the staff: Let's all do it again next year. Mrs. Davis thanks for putting up with me, good luck with Bob (ha-ha). Rick, get a new car. Kevin thanks for everything, we've had some real fun. Let's go to the river. Meri — Hot, Very Hot! Scott & Rick — u guys are geeks. Heather "WE LOVE IT!" Deanna, it's an omen, all guys named Rob are just trouble. Tina, I wish that you would stop talking so fast! 375-0275 (remember?!) Behave yourself with Greg. Lace — U are a true friend. Keep dancing and keeping Scotty in line. Tishanna, baseball players are better than wrestlers anyway. Rob, I think its about time we settled this bet. Nickel, it's not the end of the world, Cheer up! John, you are one of my bestest buds, keep lifting. Ms. Adams is Washington ready for us again next year? Laura W., Isabella sounds like a cow's name! (ha-ha) Well for anybody I forgot, Thanks! Two more years MV, then Sonarya . . .

Dawn, sports editor

We actually finished the book!!!!! It's a miracle!!!!! Rick — it's been great knowing you for the last two years. You are really sweet. Kevin (1) we need a picture of Mr. F.. Kevin (2) if you had to be stuck somewhere, glad it was here. Cathy — I'm glad I got to know you better you are really sweet. Dawn and Heather — you two are two of the sweetest people I know. Teddie — royalty is fine, Don't worry about it. You're a sweetie. Ben quit changing the color of your hair. Nikki you are a super sweet friend. Mrs. Davis Thanks for all your help. (and the rice-Krispy treats). So long till next year MV.
